phatically, and he continued, in substance: We have hired Lyric Hall, where the Republican Organization of the City of New-York held its regular meetings for several months, and will hold a meeting there on November 15, to consider the subject of Republican reorganization. This was decided upon at an informal conference of some of us this morning, at which there was manifested not so much vain distress over the past-Tammany's seizure of the city-as resolution to better things in the future. The action we are taking is not only in accordance with our own judgment and desires but also is prompted by a wish to sat isfy the demand of a great many Platt Republicans, made in the brief time since Tracy's deyou know, but Mr. Bragg, vice-president of our organization, tells me that he personally met this morning more than twenty Republicans who voted yesterday for Tracy, and who now insist that there must be a reorganization of the body of which they have been members. and that such reorganization and reform must be effected from the outside. Our basic idea in the work of reorganization is that there shall be a freer and fuller enjoyment of the suffrage by the great body of Republicans than has heretofore been permitted the membership of the Platt Republican organization. No. I don't know whether or not we shall continue en the lines of our own organization or have an entire readjustment and reorganization. That will be for those who attend the meeting of the middle of this month to decide, and at that meeting all Republicans, of whatever previous clined to comment upon the result of the election, on the philosophic plea that it was useless lamenting over what could not be undone, was yet emphatic in his opinion that some measures should be taken to reorganize and reunite the Republican party. "The party," he said, "was solid last year in the Presidential election, and it is unfortunate that the division which so materially aided Tammany's success this year should have occurred. While not suggesting that Mr. Platt should be superseded in the leadership of the party by some one else, I do say Mr. Platt himself should recognize the imperative necessity of doing something to conciliate the Republican factions. Otherwise the Republican control of the State will be endangered. Tammany is now in complete possession of this city, and will keep it for four years, and will thereby wield a tremendous influence. The Greater New-York charter was passed against the wishes of many people, and the result, as these people feared, is Democratic ascendency in the first administration of the new municipality. ducted on honest lines there could be no union. Elihu Root said last night, when asked if he thought that there should be a reorganization of the Republican party: "I think there ought to be." In his opinion, there should be a reorganization which would give a larger measure of liberty to the great body of Republicans—a change from the present condition of the practical domination of one man. Asked if he would take an active part in a movement for such a reorganization, he answered that he was not at present prepared to speak positively as to that.

Our powerful foes will not accuse us of cowardice—we have not fought in vain. The principle for which we contended will continue to assert itself. It is difficult to believe that a free people can be subjected to an 'elective despotism' or to the rule of an individual. "The election was fair. The people have spoken. I salute the majority. My carnest wish is that Mayor Van Wyck and all who have been elected with him may enjoy a successful administration. XXXVTH DISTRICT DEFECTIVE BALLOTS General Rodenbough, chief of the Election Bureau, received a letter yesterday from the Wyn-koop-Hallenbeck Printing Company, in which the firm assumed all responsibility for the error in the judiciary bailot, which occurred in nine districts of the XXXVth Assembly District. They say that they put the ballots for those districts on two presses, and that in some manner the plates became transposed. PLATT WILL RUIN THE PARTY.

MAYOR STRONG STRONGLY DENOUNCES THE SENATOR'S POLICY.

"The secret of the defeat of the Republican party and its natural allies in this city is to be found in Senator Platt and his domination of the Republican organization," said Mayor Strong vesterday

"If Mr. Platt persists in his present policy he will wreck the party in the State, as well as the city," the Mayor continued. "If he proposes to name a man of his own selection for Governor next year, disregarding the wishes of the people of the State, he will meet another defeat more crushing perhaps to his own ambitions than that of yesterday. He will not only lose us the Governor and the State, but he will probably make Republican success in the next Presidential election impossible.

Senator Platt ought to be warned by the downfall of David B. Hill, but instead he seems determined to follow in Hill's footsteps. It was Hill's reckless disregard of the popular wishes that brought about his political ruin. Platt is travelling in Hill's footsteps as fast as he can

What is your view of the city's future under "What is your view of the city's future under Mayor-elect Van Wyck?"
"I think it is promising," was the reply. "My personal opinion is that Judge Van Wyck will give us as good government as it is possible to get from that organization. I don't think the Tammany men can do very much harm now. The good example set them in the last three years of honest administration will act as a deterrent, and they cannot afford to go back on that object lesson. on that object lesson. Clean streets, for example, have come to stay."

Speaking of the mistakes of the campaign the Mayor said that the greatest mistake of the Citizens Union was its neglect to confer with the Republican organization. If the invitation to confer had been accepted, the situation today would be very different. The Republicans, on the other hand, made the mistake of trying to elect a machine candidate without counting on the independent vote, Republican and Democratic. Nevertheless, the strength of the independent movement was astonishing. With an organization such as the Republicans and Democrats possess, Mr. Low had nearly one hundred and fifty thousand votes.

"Among Senator Platt's palpable mistakes," said Mayor Strong, "the nomination of Judge Wallace was one. We all know that it contributed a great deal to the demoralization in the Republican ranks throughout the State."

Mr. Quigg had nothing more to say.

ORGANIZATION TO BE PERMANENT. PLANS OF THE CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE OF THE JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRACY.

It was a quiet day yesterday at the Henry George headquarters in the Union Square Hotel. Up to a late hour in the day "Tom" L. Johnson had nor appeared. J. Valentine George, brother of the late Henry George, was on hand most of the day and was kept busy settling up the accounts of the

The two sons, Richard George and Henry George were present during the afternoon and took part in an informal conference with Willis J. Abbot, Daniel C. Beard and a few others who had been interested in the George organization. It was said that there was no public statement to be made except that the organization was to be made perma nent. All of the rooms, eight in number, which had been used as campaign headquarters, will be vacated at once, with one exception. There will be one room maintained for a time until definite arrangements can be made for a permanent home. Dr. Miller was present during the morning hours clearing everything up, ready for leaving the place. A meeting of the Manhattan Single Tax Club was hold last night at its rooms, in Twenty-third-st. The work of the single-taxers is to go right on, and the open-air addresses will continue as of old.

One of the members of the Campaign Committee said yesterday, in commenting upon the results of the election:

"The returns have justified the course we pursued. We are not ashamed of the showing Henry George made. The number of votes cast for our challdate is more than enough to command for us recognition from either Tammany Hall or the Republican machine. The Jeffersonlan party is now the only rival Democratic party to Tammany, and when we next meet Tammany the victory will be ours."

Daniel C. Beard said he knew from the time George died that the success of the Jeffersonian Democracy was an impossibility. In regard to the result Mr. Beard said the people had voted to be robbed, and the question is whether it is any longer a crime to rob them.

FITCH TAKES THE RESULT CHEERFULLY.

Controller Fitch went to his office yesigrday bright and smiling, and nobody would have imagined that he was one of the unsuccessful candidates in Tuesday's race. Perhaps the fact that he had run about twenty-four thousand votes ahead of his ticket tended to remove something of the sting of defeat. Hesides, Mr. Fitch, although not elected, ran ahead of such eminent opponents of his as ex-Secretary Charles S. Fairchild and ex-Postmaster Charles W Dayton, and received some thousands of votes more

"I feel very grateful to the many friends who stood by me so nobly when success seemed more than doubtful," said the Controller yesterday, "and I want to thank them all through The Tribune. Somebody had to lose, and it appears that it was my turn this time. I feel rather amused than otherwise at the remarkable outcome of the campaign. Certainly, I have no complaints to make as to the action of either friend or foe."

"What kind of a government will the city get at the hands of the new administration?"

"There is no reason why we should not expect a good administration from Judge Van Wyck," was Mr. Fitch's reply. "If he will put good men into office, and he has plenty of good men to choose from among his supporters, he will make his administration a success. But if they go to work to fill the places with the worst material they can find, the end is easily discerned. The people will wake up and demand of the Legislature that such an administration shall be prevented by legal restrictions from damaging the credit and the fair fame of the city. No matter what the political complexion of the Legislature may be, the demands of the people in such a case would be listened to."

FAILURE OF THE REPUBLICANS AND CITI ZENS UNION TO COMBINE, HE SAYS, MADE THE RESULT A PRACTICAL CERTAINTY-TIME TO SETTLE

THE CURRENCY QUESTION. Chauncey M. Depew, who supported Tracy, said yesterday that the election resulted just as he feared it would. "We made the best possible fight, hope of a victory against Tammany with the anti-Tammany forces divided is almost The wonderful showing made by Mr. Low is sur prising, to say the least. The result shows that the Republicans and Citizens Union, had they been able to combine and decide upon a man acceptable to both, would have polled enough votes to win by a narrow margin. That they falled to do so made it practically a certainty for Tammany Hall. Those who are its ined to view this election in

New-York City as being of National significance are away off in their re-koning. New-York is a cosmopolitan city. The inhabitants of London are nearly all English; the people of Berlin are Germans solidly; the people of Parls, except for a small fraction, are French. New-York has only about 2) per cent of Americans—that is, Americanborn inhabitants. The rest are from Europe and all parts of the world, and they retain the habits, languages and characteristics of their native countries. The American idea of Sunday is strange to church before 9 o'clock in the morning, and the rest of the day is a holiday. They look upon Sunday as the day of greatest personal liberty and freedom. Transplanted to this country, they rebel against our Sunday laws, and in them you have the nucleus of a strong anti-reform party. Behind them stand a motiey element that only wants a policeman in sight when a crime is being committed against person or property. There are thirty thousand truckmen in the city who, under the present system, have to keep their carts off the street, and they rebel at this policy. Then there are innumerable pushcart men, venders and various small dealers, who believe Tammany helps business. Strange as it may seem, many business men think that running the town wide open in sures the bringing of buyers to New-York. The laws against women have undoubtedly been too stringent, and many innocent women have been entangled in them. All these elements contributed to the success of Tammany Hall. In that you have the whole philosophy of the situation. The reversal of votes over that of last year is purely local. Most of those who voted for Tammany this year voted for McKinley and sound money last year, and would do so again next year. If needs be. "The election in New-York has no National significance, but, with an alarming failing off of the Republican vote in the State, with heavy losses in New-Jersey. Ohio and other States, the Republican party is confronted with the incontrovertible truth that Bryanism and bimetallism are not dead. It warns them that they must take steps at once and emphatically to settle this currency question beyond any hope of reopening it. Until they do this business will be feverish and uncertain, and this firting with bimetallism may one day result in giving it a trial with all the disaster that will incur. The warning is solemn and plain, and the Republican party would be wise to accept it and act upon this ourrency question in a way that will settle it beyond further argument and insure the sound, solid, safe, conservative single standard that shall stand for ali rest of the day is a holiday. AN ELECTION BOARD ARRESTED. HARGED WITH DESTROYING RETURN SLIPS IN THE FIFTH FLECTION DISTRICT OF THE NAVIITH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

The members of the Election Board of the Fifth Election District of the XXVIIth Assembly District were arrested yesterday afternoon by Det Supreme Court, Mayor, Controller and City Court Judges. The prisoners, who were arrested on warrants obtained by Captain Schmittberger, are Charles Fitzgerald, chairman of the Board, living at No. 1.611 Broadway: Phillp J. Smith, No. 204 West Forty-ninth-st.; Simes J. Powers, No. 704 Eighthand James H. Thomas, colored, of No. 263

West Forty-seventh-st.

In the new West Fifty-fourth Sireet Court, Themas, the colored member of the Board, was responsible for the statement that all the trouble lay at the door of Fitgerald, the chairman. He declared that Fitzgerald, who is a Democrat, was under the influence of liquor, and was irritated by the necessity of placing George pasters on the ballots. He quarrelied and snaried all day, and made life unpleasant for the other members of the Board.

During the count of the ballots Samuel Blackhurst, one of the politicians of the district, who was watching the count, was attacked with an epileptic fit, and fell against the table, tilting it. The fall of the table threw a mass of papers, ballots, return slips and the like on the floor. Fitzgerald, as chairman, had to pick them up, and this added to his anger. Thomas says that he grashed up the batch of return slips, and exclaiming. To hell with them: fore them up.

Magistrate Meade held the men in $1.000 for examination Saturday.

Fitzgerald denies Thomas's story.

THE TIGER TIRED BUT HAPPY. A LOVE FEAST IN FOURTEENTH ST. BEFORE THE BATTLE OVER THE SPOILS OF VICTORY.

Tammany headquarters in Fourteenth-st was the scene all day yesterday of a never-ending love feast. Everybody was throwing bouquets at everybody else, and there was din and commotion or all sides. It was the roar of the hungry Tiger, prepared to glut itself with the spoils. All the afternoon the district leaders and their followers kept coming and going. The fight for victory at the polls had been won. The fight over the spolls was just beginning. It was not to be many braves could appear very early, however. So the wigwam was quiet until nearly noon. County Clerk-elect William Sohmer was the first leader to appear. He arrived at the early hour of 10:30 a. m. "The people have asserted themselves," he said, "and they should feel proud of the result of the election. Tammany's administration will make people proud of their decision."

In the course of the day all the candidates-

In the course of the day all the candidates-elect from Judge Van Wyck down dropped in and exchanged greetings. Before the Mayor-elect retired on Tuesday night he repeated several times a statement which ran as follows:

"In making my appolatments I want to have it understood that I shall consider only those who are known to be Democrats, and straight Democrats at that. I want fit men and honest men, but I can get all of them I require in the ranks of the Democracy." This met with the highest praise from the dyed-in-the-wood supporters of Tammany.

of the Democracy. This met will work of praise from the dyed-in-the-wool supporters of Tammany.

Richard Croker did not appear up to a late hour in the afternoon John C. Sheehan, however, turned up about 11 a. m. He said he was feeling tired but happy, and pointed out that the returns came within a few thousand of his prediction, which had been 250,000 for Van Wyck. The Tammany vote had been cast practically as the district leaders predicted it would be. Mr. Sheehan said there were to be no meetings yesterday. Everybody was "too played out from hard work" to do anything but rest.

The Republicans say that if Dr. Feeny's majority should appear on the official canvass to be below seventy-five, they will ask for a recount. The official canvass will be made to-morrow.

THE UNION TO CONTINUE.

MR. LOW LIKELY TO BE PRESIDENT OF A PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE WILL MEET TO-NIGHT-THE WORK FOR GOOD GOVERN-

Defeated but not disheartened, the leaders of the Citizens Union gathered at headquarters yesterday to talk over the situation. There were few callers. Secretary John C. Clark devoted himself to closing up routine matters, and James B. Reynolds, chairman of the Executive Committee, was also on hand. The most important matter brought out by this conference was a decision to maintain the Citizens Union as a permanent organization. Mr. Reynolds said that many causes contributed to the success of the Tammany candidate, but that he was proud of the campaign made by Mr. Low, and that the Citizens Union would not go out of existence. At a meeting of the Executive Committee to be held to-night in the rooms in East Twenty-third-st, the outlook will be discussed and plans adopted for a future policy. Mr. Low will doubtless be present, and it is said that he will be urged to accept the presidency of the Union. The Executive Committee will undoubtedly, by resolution, express the desire that Mr. Low take this action, and it is announced on trustworthy authority that he will accept. With Mr. Low at the head of the organization there will be no relaxation, and the principles for which the Citizens Union stands organization there will be no relaxation, and the principles for which the Citizens Union stands will be kept bravely to the front. It is believed that this course will have a telling effect upon the party in power, and thus much will be accomplished for good government that could not otherwise be secured.

The present headquarters will be abandoned on November 15, but new and adequate rooms will be secured. After January I, it is said, a systematic plan of organization in each election district will be begun, with the intention of building up a permanent and strong union. Mr. Reynolds said yesterday:

"We do not keep up our organization for criticism. We have been beaten and make no complaint, but we will remain alert in order to enter a strong protest against any abuse of municipal power. The fact that George did not hold his vote; that Tammany used a great deal of money; that the machine Republicans transferred their vote by wholesale from Tracy to Van Wyck, were some of the causes that contributed to our defeat. We have faith in our principles, and will continue our organization to preserve so far as possible pure municipal government."

MR. CROKER TO TAKE A REST. NOT GOING BACK TO ENGLAND, HOWEVER, AT PRESENT.

Richard Croker, when seen at the Murray Hill Hotel vesterday, said:

"The principal deduction I would make from vesterday's vote is that the people believe in home rule. The people are always right, and can always be trusted to act in opposition to the aristocracy.

"Tammany Hall has plenty of good men capa ble of giving this city a clean, practical, economi cal administration without having to look to the Citizens Union. "So far as appointments are concerned, I have

"I am sufe that promise which appears in his letter of acceptance.
"No, I am not surprised at the result. The figures given by the Tammany district leaders before the election were entirely accurate. Not only in New-York, but all over the country, there was a Democratic upheaval, and Democratic prospects were never brighter than they are to-day."

Mr. Croker said that he expected to leave New-York in a few days for a short rest. He wanted it understood that he is not going back to England at present.

REFORM MAYOR FOR SALT LAKE. Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 2.-Returns received by "The Tribune" show the election of Clark (Citizens Reform) for Mayor by a plurality of thirty votes.

A SIGN OF WHAT IS TO COME. That "coming events cast their shadows before them was manifested in the election of Justice Van Wyck to be Mayor of Greater New-York. Hardly had the bulletins announced the lead Van Wyck had in the race before the element which wants to see New-York run "wide open" began to cele brate. The Tammany heelers gathered in the Broadway Garden, the Haymarket, the Bijou and other places in the Tenderloin and shouted them-selves hoarse. A band of notorious women marched down Broadway about midnight shouting for Van Wyck.

DYSPEPSIA. How to Remove Its Many Evil Symptoms.

Properly used, the stomach is a friend. Abused, it is an enemy.

The digestive powers, although adaptable, are constitutionally limited. If, then, you live "not wisely, but too well," or eat food that disagrees with you, you necessarily suffer, unless you counteract the evil by proper treatment. If you overload the stomach, or are too fond of dainties, made dishes, etc., all the intestinal organs suffer.

The gastric juices that would suffice to digest a moderate quantity of food must necessarily fail to convert a greater supply. Undigested food ferments and breeds poisonous gases.

Food is eaten that the blood may take up essential nutritive principles from it when digested.

It is, therefore, not what we eat, but what we digest, that is essential. If you are food, and had no digestion at all, you would starve, just the same as if you ate nothing at all. Digestion, therefore, is a vital principle, and not only a mechanical operation,

When the system is overloaded, plethoric, and adipose, indigestion is set up, the functions of the liver are deranged, constipation ensues, and uric acid is generated in excess. When uric acid is present in the system, gout, rheumatism and kidney disorders are set up, and a state of Uricacid emia ensues, always provocative of disease. The best treatment for remedying this state of things has hitherto been found in the "waters" of certain European mineral-water springs. They contain certain

But Kutnow's I. E. Powder, on the contrary, is gentle and pleasant. So that you can now have all the benefits of any European mineral-spring treatment at your own home. And with a minimum expense insure a maximum benefit.

Kutnow's I. E. Powder acts as a natural lubricant to the digestive functions and to the whole alimentary tract. It obviates friction and causes smooth working, just as oil does to a machine.

Kutnow's I. E. Powder is prescribed and recommended by medical men of both hemispheres. All the leading medical journals indorse the merits of Kutnow's I. E. Powder.

Kutnow's I. E. Powder is not a secret or patent medicine. Doctors know Kutnow's I. E. Powder is produced by the ingenious expedient of desiccating the salts which contain the active principle of the mineral water, and combining them with effervescents. Although sweetened, it contains no sugar. It is, therefore, acceptable to the diabetic. Thus it is by the genial aid of Kutnow's I. E. Powder the recalcitrant liver can be brought to its proper usefulness, stimulating it if sluggish, removing bil-

"This is very strongly recommended," says "Land and Water," a prominent English contemporary, "by many acknowledged medical authorities for use by sufferers from rheumatism, gout and disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is also highly spoken of as a corrective medicine most suitable for people leading sedentary lives. We are informed that Kutnow's Improved Effervescing Powder has been prescribed for HIS ROYAL HIGH-NESS THE PRINCE OF WALES and other members of the Royal Family, which affords an indication of the opinion of the remedy entertained by the medical profession. We have seen a letter from the dispenser of the City of London Hospital for Diseases of the Chest requesting further supplies of Kutnow's Improved Effervescent Powder, which had been used in the wards with success.' Having also seen autograph letters from the late Sir Morell Mackensie to brother physicians of the highest standing, in which Messrs. Kutnow's preparations are spoken of in the most laudatory terms, we have no hesitation in bringing them to the notice of our readers.

A big lot of money changed hands vesterday in Wall Street in settlement of bets on the election. E. B. Talcott received between $12,000 and $15,000. On Monday alone he put up $20,000 at odds of 3 to 1 on Van Wyck, Warren L. James was a considerable winner. Or Monday he staked $20,000 on Van Wyck at odds of 3 to 1. At the same odds, on the same day, E. W. Jewett wagered $6,000, and H. Content wagered a like amount. Some of the large winners were David Lapsley, P. N. Sproule and M. B. Mendham.
